Ousted Unions Dissolve

Workers Abandon Groups Charged 4 Years Ago as Red Dominated Agencies

WASHINGTON — A handful of labor unions ousted from the CIO more than four years ago on grounds of Communist domination are in trouble and fading fast—even before Congress gets very far in efforts to curb Red-run unions.

The workers themselves seem to be abandoning them as whole blocs shift into CIO or AFL unions. It remains to be seen whether union leaders suspected of communist sympathies are left behind or taken along.

Congress is studying proposals to empower the Subversive Activities Control Board to label Communist-dominated unions and to deny them the legal right to operate until Communists are removed from leadership.

For a good example, take what is happening at the General Electric Co.'s big plants at Schenectady, N.Y., where considerable electronic and experimental work is carried on.

This long has been the main stronghold of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (UE), which quit the CIO in 1949 while in the process of being ex-pelled.

Officers of UE's Local 301 at Schenectady, representing 20,000 workers, recommended Monday a switch to the CIO's new International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), and the CIO-UE expects to take over after a membership meeting next Monday. This would be a heavy blow to UE, whose officers have repeatedly refused to tell congressional committees whether they were Communists.

Another of the unions booted out of the CIO—the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers—seems to be disintegrating too. Several major locals, including Mine Mill's No. 1 Local at Butte, Mont., have voted to join up with the CIO's steelworkers.

Workers will make official their choice between the Mine Mill union and CIO United Steelworkers at a National Labor Relations Board election March 22. Other Mine Mill union and CIO-United Steelworkers at a National Labor Relations Board election March 22. Other Mine Mill locals already have been absorbed by John J. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

These unions probably had 600,000 members or more when ousted from the CIO. Reliable sources estimate they now are down to between 200,000 to 250,000.

The one CIO-ousted union which seems to be holding its own is Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, which still dominates the West Coast waterfront. It is listed in a Labor Department directory as claiming 65,000 members.

Here is how some of the other CIO-ousted unions are doing:

Farm Equipment Workers—Absorbed by UE. Many locals were snatched by the CIO United Auto Workers.

Marine Cooks and Stewards—The AFL's Marine Cooks union is attempting to take over in a current NLRB election. Hugh Bryson, president of the CIO-ousted marine cooks union, is under federal indictment for allegedly false filing of a non-Communist affidavit with the NLRB.

Fur Workers—Ben Gold, the union's president, now is on trial here on charges of falsely filing a non-Communist affidavit.

Food-Tobacco Workers and Professional Workers—Memberships of both unions have been absorbed by other unions.

American Communications Assn.—Radio operators recently voted this union out of the American Cable & Radio Co., which carries overseas military messages.

Boonville Doctor Dies at Hospital

BOONVILLE — Dr. J. C. Tincher, 54, died at St. Joseph Hospital here early this morning. He had been ill about a week.

Dr. Tincher, who had practiced medicine here for most of the last 28 years, had served as Cooper County coroner, and for years he had been the physician at the Missouri Training School for Boys. He was a graduate of the St. Louis University School of Medicine. In 1910 and 1931 he was on the staff of the State Hospital No. 1 at Farmington.

Let It Pour

It looks like it's gonna rain. Let's not carry umbrellas, wear raincoats, don overshoes, or do anything to scare the moisture away.

Partly cloudy and mild tonight and Thursday with the possibility of a light shower late tonight. High Thursday in the 60s; low tonight near 40.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 37, 57 at 1 p.m., and 59 at 2 p.m.

McCarthy Sees Wilson

WASHINGTON — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) came to the Pentagon today to eat hamburgers and presumably to discuss the matter of Communists in the armed services with Secretary of Defense Wilson.

SEEK AFRICA ADVENTURE—James Braly, 40-year-old Duran, Okla., attorney, plans a photography safari in Kenya, East Africa, this summer and has advertised for companions. He will be accompanied by his wife and a Duran doctor and wants seven others to join him on the 23-day journey into the jungles. The cost will be $2,893.71 each. He received 21 queries after an advertisement in Tulsa and St. Louis Newspapers. Here he and his wife study maps. (AP Wirephoto)

Red Cross Fund Kickoff Meeting on Thursday Night

The 1954 Red Cross campaign for members and funds will have its "kickoff" meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Little Theatre, Smith-Cotton High School. All city chairman, county chairman and workers are expected to attend.

This year the American Red Cross goal is 30,000,000 adult members and $83,000,000. Pettis County Chapter's share of this is 6,000 members and $11,000.

The Red Cross is primarily a volunteer organization directed by volunteers at both the national and community levels. There are 100 Red Cross volunteers to every paid worker.

By joining the Red Cross, the public is there to restore the shattered home of a disaster victim; to give emergency help to the family of a serviceman; to brighten the weary hours of a hospital patient; or to help save and revive a drowning child.

Chartered by Congress and thus charged with important and specific responsibilities, the Red Cross has been meeting the needs of thousands of stricken or troubled men, women and children for more than 70 years.

Combat Design H-Bomb May Produce Greatest Man-made Blast Soon

HONOLULU — A combat-designed hydrogen bomb may produce history's greatest man-made blast in the Marshall Islands late this month.

There are mounting indications that an H-bomb will be exploded between March 16 and 28.

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission is scheduled to visit the atomic proving grounds in the Pacific between those dates.

Two members of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, Sen. John O. Pastore (D-R.I.) and Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.) were here en route to the Marshalls.

Holifield said other committee members were due in a few days.

Neither Strauss nor the congressmen presumably would visit the atomic proving grounds without witnessing the H-bomb explosion.

The policy committee program was announced by Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman, who banded out copies at a news conference.

Asked whether the suggestions were issued because of President Eisenhower's call for "fair play" in committee probes, Ferguson said:

"I wouldn't put it that way. This was the action of the policy committee."

Renew School Aid Plea

Two Legislative Requests On Funds For Schools Sent To Gov. Donnelly

JEFFERSON CITY — Gov. Phil M. Donnelly today is on the receiving end of two legislative requests that he broaden his special session call—to permit more state aid for public schools and to enact some laws designed to cut traffic accidents.

The resolution on state aid for schools was passed by both houses of the legislature yesterday. Today, the House passed, 78-31, its own resolution asking the governor to let the legislature do something now about modernizing the traffic code.

In his call, the governor asked for a study committee to go into the traffic control situation and report recommendations to the next regular session, in 1955. The Senate advanced a bill establishing such a committee.

But the House demanded in its resolution that something be done now to prevent a continuation of the "carnage on the highways."

The resolutions will be no surprise to the governor. He has been under pressure for weeks to let legislators get into those matters. Especially on the school situation the pressure has been growing.

Through it all Donnelly has declined any comment.

The situation developed because last year's regular legislative session appropriated $94 million as a "bonus" in state aid for schools but the governor vetoed it.

The House, in the third week of the special session that can last no more than 60 days, advanced minor appropriation bills yesterday.

The argument on the House floor brought to public attention the fact that the Democratic candidate and apparent winner served time in Alcatraz Intermediate Reformatory as a young man for stealing timber in Taneo County.

The Democrat, Coleman R. Smith, sat quietly on the sidelines today as his past was bared in the bitter exchange between the Republican and Democrats.

He did not change expression as the partisans traded barbs.

Said his primary interest, during all his years in the Army, and since, has been for the security of the United States. That was in comment on Stevenson's criticism of the "new look" defense program. Eisenhower declared he never will do anything he feels is against the best security interests of the U.S., and added with much emphasis that he was going to demagogic about it.

Reps. Charles H. Pulis (D) of Aspinwall and George W. White (D) of Taneo County said he didn't think any man could be as dishonest as the members were trying to imply.

But her attorneys asked for the investigation and the Republicans offered a resolution ordering the probe. One round of argument ended in no decision yesterday. Today, the Republicans brought it up for final action.

Rep. Roy Hamlin (D) of Marion County, minority leader, told the House it should let Smith be sworn in first and then consider the legality of his election. Hamlin said Smith was ready to take the oath but Speaker Lester Vonderschmidt (R) of Holt County, declined to permit it.

And Hamlin threatened court action if the Republicans didn't do it the way he said the law required. He pointed to the 1940-41 contest of Republican Forrest C. Donnell's election as governor for proof the Republicans were taking the wrong steps today.

Rep. Oliver C. Nolen (D) of Monroe County said "I'm going to expose this man." Then he told the House about Smith's conviction as a youth.

Now, he said, Smith has reformed. He operates an automobile agency, is married and the father of two children. He is respected by the residents of Sullivan County, Nolen said, and they knew his record when they voted for him.

Nolen said he doubted whether many of the House members could swear they lived through early manhood without committing some act that could have put them in the reformatory.

"I'm not pleading for mercy but for justice and right—don't make him live it all over. Sullivan County knew all about it when they sent him down here. Don't send him back there branded as felon."

"You gain absolutely nothing and you spoil a life," Nolen said. "But if you want to do that, go ahead."

Rep. A. Clifford Jones (R) of St. Louis County, before whose election committee the case will be aired, said he would rather not have to take the case. He said he would welcome an amendment to the reformatory to which some of our men were subjected as captives.

Confirmed that he is telling everyone he can reach, as he puts it, that he wants emphasis on the positive aspects of the administration's program. Negative things, he added, never make for happiness among people.

Touched off a laugh in remarking that he ought to be rapidly impeached if he got so rigid that he could not decide any matter in the best interests of the country. That was prompted by a question on whether he would disapprove any future international executive agreements which contravene the internal law of the country.

However, I never expect perfections on this earth."

Hoover said one reason all possible economy moves will not be approved is that about 200 pressure groups "occupy themselves pressuring the government for more spending or in opposing any reductions."

He said these pressure groups are included in about 200,000 associations of various kinds, "most of which give voice for or against something relating to government."

"There is today a saving antidote which comes from the host of associations which do battle with the pressure groups," he continued.

"After the last commission, the press not only opposed them, but the citizens organized to oppose them, and other associations went into battle with them. Thereby we had more success. However, several pressure groups came out victorious in spite of these efforts."

Nixon Says US to Fight On Own Terms

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Vice President Nixon told a Philadelphia Bulletin Forum audience last night the United States has adjusted its thinking to the point "where we will now fight on our own terms." Nixon, in the forum's keynote address, said U.S. armed strength and military planning is being rearranged "to carry out that policy," a plan which he said has already born visible fruit.

"In not one area of the world," he said, "have the Reds gained this year—and in many areas we have made gains. For the first time in a generation we are experiencing peace and prosperity at the same time."

He said much of the credit for this successful shift can be traced to President Eisenhower as well as the National Security Council. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and the "defense team" composed of Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and Navy Secretary Robert B. Anderson.

He said the United States must aid the Associated States in Indochina because a Red victory there would mean the eventual loss of all Asia to communism.

He said the present situation in the Far East can be summed up thus:

"If Southeast Asia falls, if it comes under the Communist domination or Communist orientation, what happens to Japan? Inevitably by necessity it must become an economic satellite in the Soviet orbit . . ."

The loss of China led to Korea and to Indochina and the loss of Indochina may lead to the loss of Asia."

Legion Aux. Otterville, Plans for District

Oak Pointers Meet

Twelve members were present for the meeting.

SEDALIA'S GIRL SCOUTS AT CAMP—Now observing the 42nd anniversary of Girl Scouting, Sedalia's 548 Girl Scouts and 107 leaders, are most proud of their camp. This picture was taken at the camp last year and shows a large number of campers gathered for the daily flag ceremony. The accompanying article tells of the girls' activities and their Scouting anniversary.

Sedalia Girl Scouts Observe 42nd Anniversary This Week

This week the Girl Scouts of the United States are celebrating their 42nd birthday anniversary.

On March 12, 1912, Juliette Low met with the first troop in Savannah, Ga. From that humble beginning have sprung millions of troops in every city, town and in most rural areas of our country.

We believe Girl Scouting has grown as Miss Low hoped it would, because it is a worth-while, democratic organization and because it has something to offer every girl from 7 to 17.

Its aim is to help develop girls along physical, emotional, mental, moral and social lines so she may become more rounded individual and therefore a better citizen, better equipped to take her place in her community, state and nation.

Brownies at seven begin to learn to think for themselves and to develop their talents and they learn in such a way that it is fun to them. They learn through make believe games, songs and stories. The Brownies learn to live by the "promise"—"to do my best to love God and my country, to help other people every day, especially those at home."

The Intermediate Scout, from 10 to 14, wants to learn how to do things and the Scout program offers her many opportunities. There are ten fields of interest for her to explore—arts and crafts, community life, health and safety, homemaking, international friendship, literature and dramatics, music and dancing, nature, outdoors, sports and games.

Such activities make use of restless energy and bring out creative ability. But in addition the girl is learning to work harmoniously with others. She is a part of a group and she begins to practice the essentials of democratic living.

The Senior Scout program for teen-age girls is much the same as the intermediate except these girls really become experts at some of the things they have become interested in and are encouraged to go as far as they can with their talents. This age girl is very aware of her community and eager to help it in any way she can. In Sedalia they work with the Melita Day Nursery, the Minneola Nursery, the Red Cross and on the United Fund drive.

Camp and the out-of-doors is a very important part of Girl Scouting at any age level. Our camp, Sakajawea, three miles southwest of Sedalia is our most cherished possession. June is camp month but troops use the camp for picnics and overnights the year around.

Surely there is something real in the Scout promise and laws Juliette Low taught that very first troop or we would not this week be celebrating the 42nd anniversary of Girl Scouting.

Premier Laniel Gets Green Light On Indochina Pact

PARIS (AP)—The French National Assembly gave Premier Joseph Laniel's government the green light last night to negotiate as it sees fit for peace in Indochina. Laniel told the deputies the Geneva conference offers the best chance for a solution.

Earlier in the debate Laniel had told the Assembly he would welcome a cease-fire in Indochina before the Geneva meeting—as proposed by Indian Prime Minister Nehru. But the Premier outlined conditions so stiff that it was certain the Communist-led Vietnamese rebels would not accept.

The Assembly also told the three Associated States of Indochina they must not cut loose from the French Union if they want French help in fighting the Vietnamese.

Negotiations now are going on in Paris between the French and the Vietnamese government aimed at granting that state greater liberties within the union.

After the vote, Laniel denied a charge by wartime Premier Edouard Daladier that France had agreed—in exchange for U. S. Military aid in Indochina—not to negotiate a peace without consulting the United States. He said no strings were attached to the U. S. aid agreement.

The Associated Press reported that the French government had agreed—in exchange for U. S. Military aid in Indochina—not to negotiate a peace without consulting the United States. He said no strings were attached to the U. S. aid agreement.

Move to Fill Secretary Of Navy Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration was moving today to fill quickly the vacancy in the Navy secretary's post created by the selection of Robert B. Anderson to be deputy defense secretary.

The White House announced yesterday that President Eisenhower had sent Anderson's nomination to the Senate, to succeed Roger M. Kyes, who is leaving as No. 2 man in the Defense Department May 1. Anderson is a "Democrat for Eisenhower" from Texas.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, at a Pentagon news conference shortly after the White House announcement, was asked if Gov. John Lodge of Connecticut, a Republican, was being considered to succeed Anderson for the Navy post. Wilson said "I would rather not talk about" any of the possible choices, but he added:

"It will be settled before the week is over—not later than that."

Kyes, who attended the news conference, was asked why he was leaving the defense job, which he took after resigning as a General Motors vice president.

"The best reason was that I decided to come down to Washington for only one year," he replied.

Anderson's nomination was referred to the Senate Armed Services Committee. Early Senate confirmation is expected.

Wilson told reporters the selection of Anderson, 43, was "very fortunate" because he now had a year's experience in Pentagon operations and "I'm sure he will contribute greatly to the job that is to be done."

Pettis County Youths Featured In 20-Minute Movie on Fair

Those who have or have not attended the Missouri State Fair will have a chance to see what the fair is like in a 20-minute sound and color movie that has just been completed by the MFA Mutual Insurance Company for the Missouri State Department of Agriculture.

Governor Phil M. Donnelly and Commissioner of Agriculture L. C. Carpenter play leading roles in the film which features the search through the fair grounds of a farm boy and girl from Pettis County, Buddy and Mary Lou Anderson.

The new movie, entitled "A Day at the Fair," was photographed during the 1953 fair.

Grand champion livestock, high school bands, grand circuit harness races, carnival rides and the water thrill show with Sharkey the seal combine to make the 20-minute movie a pleasant experience for old and young.

The film is loaned free of charge to any civic, women's, farm, youth, or other group that has a 16-millimeter sound projector and a competent operator.

The film cannot be shown on a silent projector.

Prints of the film may be obtained by writing the Missouri State Fair, Sedalia, or the MFA Mutual Insurance Company, Columbia.

earns On Business By US Women

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor
The business ability of American women is making headlines in France.

Most recent subject of French comment is Adele Simpson, a tiny dynamo who, with her partner, Eleanor Graham, runs one of America's biggest and most successful wholesale dressmaking firms.

Agence Quotidienne, a Paris equivalent of the Wall Street Journal, devoted almost a full page recently to an awestruck dissertation on the methods and magnitude of the firm which bears Adele's name. The paper's New York correspondent, Max Dorian, remarked on the difference between the custom dressmaking houses of Paris and the vast wholesale production of New York.

"In this respect (quality mass production) American houses have held their own against all competition. The most outstanding among them, considering the importance of business transactions as well as the remarkable finish of its 'seam' creations, is Adele Simpson, Inc."

The offices of the firm are located not far from Times Square. In contrast to our great dressing houses there is no pretense here for atmosphere.

They dispense with the expensive front which impresses and seduces the clientele, as they do business with professional buyers only.

Here, all sales are final. The garment manufacturers buy their fabrics by placing fir orders in advance. One point stands out clearly: while Paris leads the styles of fashion, the greatest risks are taken in New York, so that the exclusivity is followed by quantity."

Mrs. Simpson is a miniature, less than five-feet tall, tipping the scales at less than 100 pounds, with a soft, little-girl voice and a shy manner.

She could be perfectly cast as the "clinging vine" in a Victorian play—the shy, fluttery little woman who doesn't understand the big, bad world of business.

But her husband, Wesley Simpson, a successful financier, lets "the little woman" run her own vast corporation with no questions asked. He knows she is a match for the toughest banker in Wall street.

Add to this the fact that her designing skill has been recognized by three major awards in the brief five years since she has headed her own firm and you'll have some idea of why a Paris financial paper should consider her worthy of a full page.

Even more amazing to most Frenchmen is the fact that this tiny, feminine creature can run one of the country's biggest businesses with one hand, and with the other manage two perfectly appointed homes and an adoring family of contented husband, teenage daughter and college son.

Pat O'Brien Joins Parade Of Stars as Bistro Owners

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Move over, Jack Dempsey and Joe DiMaggio; Pat O'Brien is getting into the bistro business.

The smiling Irishman is the figurehead of a group of moneymen who plan to erect a restaurant, hotel and casino on Las Vegas' famed Strip.

"They've been after me for some time to use my name for some kind of establishment," said O'Brien in the comfortable, trophy-laden den of his Brentwood home.

"After all, the other places are operated by syndicates that just pick some name for the hotel," he reasoned. "None of them is based on a personality. We think the public will be attracted to Pat's place because of the integrity behind his name."

The financier said that backing was coming from New York, Texas and California businessmen, adding that their names cannot be revealed until they meet the approval of the state of Nevada.

Ground was broken for the construction of the first unit 10 days ago. Pat was available for the ceremonies. Actual building will begin in a week or so, O'Connor said. The casino and bar will go up first, he said, followed by a 200-unit hotel.

"I have a little dough in it, but nothing compared to what the guys with the money are putting up. Mostly I just lend them the name. The only stipulation is that I be on the premises at least 24 hours of every week. I may be there more. But if a picture job comes up, I'm excused. I get paid less, but I still get paid. It's a dandy deal."

"What I'll do is a number or

West Germany Drafts Civil Defense Plan

BONN, Germany — An official source said today the West German Interior Ministry has drafted a detailed plan for the nation's first civil defense program since World War II. It is to be submitted soon to Parliament with a request for a special appropriation to cover its cost, the source said.

What hurt Callahan was that some of the inmates were using the slugs over and over again. He said they would lower coin into the meter and then, using wire pulled from jail brooms, bring them up again for re-use.

The meters have been moved outside the cells and now are fed by turnkeys. The television keeps the prisoners quiet and docile, Callahan reported.

Woman Editor, Who Lost Both Legs, Decides How Tall to Be

Editor's Note — This is a story of a woman's great courage. It is written by Eddy Gilmore, who got to know Rebecca Gross, editor of the Lock Haven (Pa.) Express, when she visited Moscow last spring with a group of newspaper editors. Gilmore, for 11 years chief of the AP bureau in Moscow and now reassigned to the foreign service in London, said his visit with Becky was one of the unforgettable experiences of his adventuresome life.

By EDDY GILMORE

WEST ORANGE, N.J. — Rebecca Gross, the valiant lady editor who lost both legs in an automobile accident, said she's sending for her passport.

"But Becky," I gasped, "surely you can't be thinking of traveling yet."

"Oh, no," she laughed, "not quite yet. I just wanted to find out how tall I was. Your passport is about the only document I know of that shows it."

That remark, that attitude, is so characteristic of the Lock Haven, Pa., newspaperwoman, who simply refuses to be sorry for herself, or to treat herself any way but normally.

"You see," she explained in her bright, quick way, "I've got to begin thinking about how tall I want to be."

I still didn't quite understand.

"I'm ordering my artificial soon," she said, "and I've simply got to decide how tall I want to be."

She laughed.

"At first," she said, "I thought I might like to up myself five inches so I could see over the heads of the crowds at parades. But then I decided that would offer a real problem. I'd have to get an entirely new wardrobe, one to fit a 5-foot-10 gal. I used to be about 5 feet 5 I suppose, but I'll have to read my passport to find out for sure."

What do you say to a person like that? If you don't have a hole in your head you don't say anything. You just listen in unashamed admiration to a very wonderful human being, making her way back to normalcy with dignity and a sense of humor.

Rebecca Gross lost her legs about 5 p.m. on New Year's Eve. She was driving her car through Williamsport, Pa., on the way to the airport to meet her sister, when, wham! There it was. Two cars collided at an intersection and pinned Becky against a telephone pole.

The left leg was amputated below the knee, the right leg just above the knee.

But save your sympathy for someone who needs it. Becky has no use for it. She has finished her first week at the Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation.

She looked out of a huge window at some rolling meadows that showed a faint suggestion of spring. The last time I had sat and talked and laughed with her had been in my apartment in Moscow. Not a year ago.

"Your insurance, Becky," I said, "it must cover all of this." She laughed.

"Do you know," she said, "I let my accident insurance run out. I said, oh, nothing of that sort is ever going to happen to me."

I rose to go.

"Come to see us in London."

"Yes, I will. And I'll climb your stairs too."

She will. I never felt surer of anything in life.

Despite her trouble, she doesn't preach. But she thinks that is something every American should remember—that the place where your accident is going to happen looks like any other spot you have passed in safety a thousand times.

I thought she had had enough bad breaks, but I discovered something else, something that perhaps isn't known at all, as we sat there talking, looking out over the hills and meadows.

"Your insurance, Becky," I said, "it must cover all of this."

"You know," she said, "you must have had a real tough time over there. Over in Russia with your Russian wife and children when they couldn't get out. You really—"

"Stop it, Becky," I interrupted.

"I'm damned if I've come over here to receive your sympathy and commiseration!"

She will. I never felt surer of anything in life.

Morse Says US Has No Choice But Price Cuts

DAYTON, Ohio — Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse said today the government had no choice but to lower price supports for dairy products in the marketing year beginning April 1.

Morse said that Secretary Benson, in lowering the supports for butter, cheese and dried milk from the present level of 90 per cent of parity to 75 per cent, followed a ruling by the Agriculture Department's solicitor, or top legal officer.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

In a speech prepared for the Miami Valley Milk Producers Assn., Morse said farm law specifically directs the secretary of Agriculture to support dairy prices between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, at a level which he determines will "assure an adequate supply."

"The solicitor of the department ruled," the undersecretary said, "that the supply situation was such that the lower level of support would have to be applied within the meaning of the law."

Morse said the lower support level will enable the dairy industry to "recapture some of the lost markets to help move our dairy products into human consumption instead of into government warehouses."

In urging farmer support for the Eisenhower administration's new farm program, Morse said the country will be "turned back to the philosophy of scarcity that was tried and found wanting during the 1930s" if the new program is not adopted.

"If Mayor Thornton asked banker Thornton for a loan, would he get it?"

City Vacates Bar In Old Fashioned Way

DETROIT — Sam's Bar got the old heave-ho as quickly as a noisy drunk yesterday. A Detroit constable's crew was the bouncer.

Within three hours, the whole shabang was out in the streets—chairs, tables, coolers, beverages and all. The building had been condemned to make way for a civic center.

"Thrown out like a dog," owner Sam Schwartz muttered as the potato chip rack was carted out.

Schwartz said he thought the city had given him another two weeks in which to move. But the city said that he had made a mistake.

He was ordered to vacate. And when he didn't, the bar got the bounce.

One-Legged Persons Learn To Be Skiers

BIG BEAR LAKE, Calif. — The challenging art of skiing—touch enough for a normal person to learn—is being mastered by a group of determined, one-legged men.

Like other groups in the area they're taking instruction, but there's a difference: the members of this bunch use only one regulation ski, with another on a crutch.

They are students of the American Amputee Ski School, the only one of its type in this country.

Its director, Scobee Smith of Lancaster, Calif., lost a leg in a bout with cancer two years ago.

The school, just started this winter, has about a dozen pupils, including three Army veterans who became amputees after being injured in Korean combat.

The amputee skiers come from various southern California points to attend weekend classes at nearby Snow Summit.

"The whole idea of an amputee ski school," said Smith, a senior at the University of California at Los Angeles, "belonged to Bob Engleman, a former Army captain and an amputee who died just three months ago."

"Bob saw amputee skiing for the first time in Germany in 1951, and gave it a try. He became convinced there should be an amputee ski school over here. He got it going just before he died three months ago."

Strangely, one of the obstacles in establishing a ski school came from some skiers who said it would be "depressing" to the public to see amputees skiing.

Actually, skiers here now marvel at the amputees' great progress.

"We can ride up on the rope tows, make downhill runs, do our turns and traverses like pros," Smith reported. "Last week, I even went through the slalom course. And did some airplane turns."

As for the construction of the skis, Smith said Engleman brought back a sample crutch ski from Germany and he copied it and made others for the students at his school. "We use a regulation ski plus the crutch ski."

The Snow Summit amputee ski school is sponsored by the Los Angeles Athletic Club, which pays the teaching and equipment costs. Snow Summit provides the facilities at no cost. Service clubs handle food, lodging and transportation expenses for the amputees.

Negro Minister, Who Aided FBI, Gives Testimony

ST. LOUIS — The Rev. Obadiah Jones, St. Louis Negro pastor who served as an undercover agent for the FBI, identified three of five Communists on trial here as persons he met at party meetings.

The Rev. Jones, pastor of the Mount Tabor Baptist Church, was a surprise witness in the trial yesterday. He testified he joined the Communist Party in 1946 at the request of the FBI.

He testified FBI agents asked him to join the party in February, 1946, and he received a membership card in April of the same year. The Rev. Jones said he was introduced to William Sennher, Robert Manowitz and Marcus A. Murphy at the party's headquarters.

Other defendants in the trial are James F. Forest and his wife, Dorothy Rose. All are charged with conspiring to advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Manowitz, the Rev. Jones testified, once declared that Communism could replace Capitalism which would "die like a drowning man grasping at straws."

Another witness yesterday was Beryl Ivan Stover of St. Louis, who said he was a party member from 1935 to 1949. Stover testified that Sennher, Manowitz and Murphy were members of the Communist Party's state executive committee in 1940.

Senate Advances State Highway Safety Study

JEFFERSON CITY — The Missouri Senate advanced a highway safety study bill to the final voting stage today with only scanty opposition.

The measure was one of the recommendations Gov. Phil M. Donnelly made in calling the state's second special legislative session in four months.

As the senate approved it, the measure would set up a 12-man bipartisan commission—four appointees of the governor, four senators and four representatives. The commission would investigate the entire field of traffic safety and report its recommendations to the next regular session next year.

Sen. C. R. Hawking (R) of Brumley, the only senator heard voting against approval of the bill, complained that the work already is being done by the senate's criminal law revision committee.

Takes Allegiance Oath Minus Clause on Arms

BALTIMORE — The Japanese minister of a Seventh Day Adventist church was permitted yesterday to take her oath of citizenship without the customary swearing to bear arms for her country.

Mrs. Masu Sager of Takoma Park, Md., told Chief Federal Judge William C. Coleman she would promise to do noncombatant service but said her religion would not allow her to swear to bear arms.

Under these conditions and after considerable questioning, Judge Coleman allowed her to take the oath of allegiance with the phrase stricken out.

Jack Benny's Daughter Has Lavish Wedding, Dad Pays

By BOB THOMAS

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — Joan Benny and Seth Baker embarked on a Hawaiian honeymoon today and her father, Jack Benny, was fated with an estimated $25,000 bill for one of the most lavish weddings in Hollywood history.

Benny, wearing white tie, tails and glasses, last night led his 19-year-old adopted daughter through the flower-decorated Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. The bride's mother, Mary Livingston, who had arranged all the details, became impatient with the photographers and ordered the reception line to begin.

Benny gave Joan in marriage to Baker, 26-year-old New York stock broker and son of industrialist Harry Baker, before a crowd of stars of stage, TV, and movies. Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin performed the double-ring ceremony and advised the couple to "forget about the tinsel of life and live for the good things."

Billed as a tightwad on his radio and TV programs, Benny spared no expense in the wedding. White lace was flown from Holland to add to the white and green motif that converted the Crystal Room into a spring garden. Designer Don Loper, who staged the affair, flew to France to arrange for an exclusive weave of brocaded white satin for the bride's gown. Thirty-five yards with lily of the valley figurines were used.

The wedding went off without a hitch. The principals faced news cameras before the ceremony and after. The bride's mother, Mary Livingston, who had arranged all the details, became impatient with the photographers and ordered the reception line to begin.

Benny played it straight throughout. He smiled weakly and made some attempts at humor, but he seemed obviously nervous with his role as the doting father. He even resisted the temptation to join the orchestra of 10 violins who serenaded the reception with "Love in Bloom."

The wedding brought the biggest star turnout within memory. Two hundred attended the wedding, including George Burns and Gracie Allen, George Montgomery and Dinah Shore, Ann Sothern, Jane Wyman, Bob Hope, Eddie Cantor and the Benny troupe of Dennis Day, Don Wilson, Mel Blanc and Bob Crosby. Only Rochester was absent, being in New York for the Milton Berle Show.

The reception swelled the guest list to 600. Among the celebrants: Tyrone Power and Linda Christian, Esther Williams, Dean Martin, Ann Blyth, Ed Wynn, Joan Bennett and Ethel Merman. The guests were treated to French champagne, vintage 1945, and a buffet dinner which included boned capon, wild rice, beef Stroganoff and caviar. The cake was a five-tiered affair weighing 200 pounds.

Cpl. Sommers Awarded Bronze Star In Korea

Corporal Charles H. Sommers of the United States Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Letha Sommers, 136 West Market street, Warrensburg, and grandson of Mrs. Goldie Sommers, 704 East Fifth, Sedalia, last week was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroic action on the battlefield in Korea, according to the citation received Monday by his mother.

Cpl. Sommers, who is still in Korea, recently completed a non-commissioned officers school in the citation stated:

"In the name of the President of the United States, the Command General, 1st Marine Division (Reinf) EMF, takes pleasure in awarding the Bronze Star Medal to Corporal Charles H. Sommers, United States Marine Corps, for service as set forth in the following Citation:

"For heroic achievement in connection with operations against the enemy while serving with a Marine Infantry company in Korea from 25 to 27 July 1953. Serving as a platoon runner, Corporal Sommers displayed skill in the performance of his duties. During a vicious attack by hostile troops on the company's sector of the main line of resistance, his professional skill and ingenuity were a constant source of aid to the platoon throughout the critical period. Acting as a wireman, he continually laid wire and installed telephones in the face of a heavy enemy mortar and artillery fire. On one occasion, he fearlessly exposed himself to murderous hostile fire in order to install wire communications with a tank, thereby enabling the company commander to call and direct friendly fire upon the enemy. As the hostile barrages repeatedly severed communication wires, he continuously traced the breaks and installed new wires when needed. Although physically exhausted, he refused relief and relentlessly continued his task of installing vital communications. Corporal Sommers' determined actions and devotion to duty served as an inspiration to all who observed him and were in keeping with the highest traditions.

Former Commie Will Tell More Of Spies In US

WASHINGTON — A self-styled former Communist goes before the Senate investigations subcommittee today to continue his story of Reds working on electronics research for the government.

The witness, Peter A. Gragis of Levittown, N.Y., testified Friday he was a member of a Communist cell at the Federal Telecommunications Laboratory at Nutley, N.J., in the 1940s, but that he has no knowledge of any espionage there. He said he broke with communism in 1950.

The Nutley plant, owned by the International Telephone and Telegraph Co., is engaged in electronic research for the armed forces.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), has been searching for evidence of Communist spying and subversion at defense installations.

Meanwhile, Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.) and the Senate Armed Services Committee, he heads, planned a study of whether new laws are needed to cope with subversion of the armed forces.

Saltonstall announced yesterday the committee will take testimony March 18 from Secretary of Defense Wilson on whether new legislation is needed.

Texas County ASA Committee Is Dismissed

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Texas County is without a county agriculture stabilization and conservation committee. The state ASC committee yesterday dismissed the whole three-man Texas County committee after hearings in the state ASC offices here.

Stanton G. Haliburton, Democrat, chairman of the Texas committee, was dismissed January 19 after a row with Murray C. Colbert, Montgomery City, state ASC chairman.

Colbert went to Texas County to interview applicants for the disputed position of ASC office manager there. When he arrived, he said today, he found no applicants in the office as instructed.

Haliburton said an error in the fieldman's letter arranging for the meeting was at fault. Colbert said the error was obvious and should have been straightened out by Haliburton. After an argument about the letter, and when Haliburton insisted that two newspaper men who were in the office when Colbert arrived should be present when the office manager applicants were discussed, Colbert suspended him.

Haliburton and his attorney, Weldon Moore of Houston, appeared before the state ASC committee yesterday morning to protest the dismissal. Colbert announced today that the committee decided to make the dismissal permanent.

And yesterday afternoon, the other two members of the Texas County committee, James R. Grogen and Clark Flowers, were called before the state ASC committee to answer charges of allowing Haliburton to continue at his work in the ASC after being dismissed.

Haliburton worked "several days" after the January dismissal, Colbert said, despite three phone calls and a letter to the rest of the committee demanding that Haliburton not be allowed to continue his duties.

"Because of the failure of the other committee members, Grogen and Flowers, to cooperate with the state committee, and because the state committee feels they are not in harmony with the betterment of the agricultural program," we have dismissed them, too," Colbert said after the day's hearing.

The committee's new member, Roy Gentry, who was first alternate to the committee before the dismissals, automatically becomes the new chairman. Two other committee members and two alternates will be chosen by a Texas County convention of community delegates. The convention will be called as soon as possible, Colbert said.

Robber Fears He Would Be Killed At State Prison

ST. LOUIS — An admitted robber who fears he will be slain if sent to the state penitentiary at Jefferson City will be permitted to serve out his time in the St. Louis city workhouse.

The robber is Jerome C. Anderson, 33, member of a gang that used the Salvation Army as a cover-up for its activities.

Anderson's plea against being sent to the state prison was being sent to the courts on the recommendation of Circuit Atty. Edward L. Dowd, who noted Anderson testified against one member of the gang and has been co-operative in some other matters.

Anderson is expected to receive consecutive workhouse sentences totaling seven years. He has received two one-year sentences on guilty pleas to two robbery charges and is awaiting sentence on five other charges.

Dowd explained the person or persons feared by Anderson are not in the state prison at present but soon will be.

Mother's Jealousy Leads to Murder Of Son, Suicide

SABETHA, Kan. — The death of a 60-year-old woman and her 23-year-old son have been termed murder and suicide apparently stemming from the mother's jealousy over her own son.

County Coroner W. R. Popkess today listed the death of John H. Wittenbach as murder and that of Mrs. Verda May Wittenbach as suicide.

The coroner's report followed a lengthy investigation. The son was found dead last month in a granary on the family farm. Several days later the mother also was found dead in the same spot. At first both deaths were believed to be suicides. Poison was found in the bodies of both.

The coroner's statement followed a handwriting expert's report that a suicide note purportedly left by the son actually had been written by Mrs. Wittenbach.

Popkess said young Wittenbach, a Korean war veteran, had seen dates with a girl since his return from service in Korea Dec. 5.

"There was nothing serious between them," Popkess said. "But the mother apparently imagined that there was, and she was determined that no other woman should have her son."

Tedious Controversy Ends for N.Y. Papers

NEW YORK — Publishers of six New York City daily newspapers and the AFL Photo-Engravers Union ended a months-long controversy today by signing a one-year contract covering wages and working hours.

The dispute erupted into an 11-day strike last November and December which shut off publication of the newspapers when other union employees refused to cross the photo-engravers' picket lines.

The contract provides for weekly wage package increase of $3.75 and a continuation of the 35½-hour work week, both recommended by a fact-finding panel.

National Wildlife Week Begins on March 21

JEFFERSON CITY — The week of March 21 will be National Wildlife Week in Missouri with "clean waters for all Americans" as its theme.

Designating it by proclamation today, Gov. Phil M. Donnelly noted "the vital importance of water pollution control and abatement" and urged citizens to support "all sound programs designed to conserve clean waters."

Over time, however, the good effects will be appreciable," the secretary said in a statement prepared for the House Agriculture Committee.

The Eisenhower program features a system of flexible price supports as contrasted with present rigid high-level supports for basic crops, and a shift to a modernized formula for determining parity of so-called "fair farm prices."

McCarthy May Not Be Appeased; Every Attempt Has Backfired

(Editor's note—In his series on Eisenhower vs. McCarthy, Drew Pearson today reports on different administration concessions made for the purpose of trying to secure McCarthy's cooperation.)

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—When the Republican party threw a big cheese party for newsmen at the opening of congress, Joe McCarthy came up to John Foster Dulles, put his arm around his shoulder and said:

"Haven't I been a good boy lately?"

What McCarthy referred to was the fact that he had laid off criticizing the state department for a few weeks, partly as a result of a compromise agreement patched up with Vice President Nixon in December.

Nixon had urged McCarthy to lay off the witch-hunting and turn the problem of Communism over to Senator Jenner's internal security committee where it properly belongs. In turn, Nixon promised that Attorney General Brownell would turn over to McCarthy various cases of alleged graft and inefficiency which Nixon said would reflect on the Truman administration. Thus McCarthy would continue to get the headlines, though probing something that legitimately came under his government operations committee.

McCarthy agreed. But no sooner had he returned to Washington, and was asked by newsmen about the agreement, than he denied it.

Joe Remains Sweet

Despite the denial, however, McCarthy did live up to the agreement for about two weeks. Then quietly he handed Senator Welker of Idaho, sometimes called the "Junior McCarthy," a copy of a speech he, McCarthy, had prepared blasting Dulles' law partner, Arthur Dean, then special ambassador for the Korean peace talks.

Probably Secretary Dulles didn't know that the man who put his arm around his shoulder so affectionately at the GOP cheese party was the real author of that speech. And he may not know it even today.

But McCarthy had prepared the speech as a blast against Dulles last December after the secretary of state had issued the most forthright statement so far made by any Eisenhower cabinet member against McCarthy after his nationwide radio broadcast answering Truman.

Though McCarthy had drafted a hot answer to Dulles, it remained undelivered—thanks to the persuasive and personable Len Hall. Mr. Hall, the smooth-talking chairman of the Republican national committee, had sweet-talked McCarthy into discarding his blast at Dulles just as he sweet-talked Eisenhower out of blasting McCarthy last week.

But McCarthy kept the text and gave it to Senator Welker who blasted Dulles instead.

Appeasing Joe

The above illustrates the basic problem President Eisenhower faces with Joe McCarthy. He faces first the fact that one wing of the Republican party is definitely, almost avidly, for McCarthy; second, the fact that McCarthy never stays put. He can be appeased one day; and one day later, or even one hour later, he's right back slugging at the man who appealed him.

The President himself and his administration have made no fewer than ten attempts to appease McCarthy beginning back in the days when he was running for president. Here is the roll-call:

Appeasement No. 1—Prior to Ike's Milwaukee speech, Tom Dewey persuaded him to include in the speech two paragraphs critical of McCarthy. When GOP Chairman Summerfield heard of this he, with three old guard senators, hired a special plane, caught up with Ike's campaign train and talked him out of it. However, Ike wrote into the speech a paragraph praising his old chief, Gen. George Marshall, whom McCarthy had castigated. Again Summerfield arranged for McCarthy to come up the back elevator of the Marquette Hotel in Peoria where McCarthy talked Ike out of the Marshall praise.

Appeasement No. 2 occurred after Harold Stassen told McCarthy to keep his nose out of Greek ship problems. Vice President Nixon, with White House blessing, persuaded Stassen to get together with McCarthy and eat crow.

Appeasement No. 3, was after the President's book-burning speech at Dartmouth. Next day McCarthy talked White House out of broadcasting the speech over the Voice of America. He also got the President to issue a statement that the speech meant no reflection on McCarthy.

Appeasement No. 4—Attorney General Brownell whitewashed the unanimous senate report on McCarthy's peculiar financial transactions; also the senate report on irregularities in the Maryland elections.

Appeasement No. 5—McCarthy's close friend, Robert E. Lee, who was implicated in the Maryland elections, was appointed to the Federal Communications Commission, making two McCarthy men on this key body.

Appeasement No. 6—H. L. Hunt, staunch McCarthy supporter and employer of both Mrs. McCarthy and Robert E. Lee, was given a tax deduction of 20 per cent on contributions to his TV program, "Facts Forum."

Appeasement No. 7—The Army turned over to McCarthy carbon copies of its investigation of Fort Monmouth. This enabled McCarthy to take the Army's reports and the Army's witnesses and stage his own probe, making it appear that he personally had rooted out subversion in the Army.

The other three cases of appeasement involved the Nixon attempt in Miami to "get Joe to be good"; Secretary of the Army Stevens' retreat; and the president's own tone-down of his original proposed blast at McCarthy immediately following the Stevens' mix-up.

Nevertheless, some White House advisers still think they can appease the senator from Wisconsin. And despite a growing group of advisers who tell him to the contrary, Mr. Eisenhower still follows the advice of the former.

Better U. S. Trade With Japan Is Goal of Premier

By Peter Edson

WASHINGTON—Japanese Premier Shigeru Yoshida is planning a trip to the United States for early April. There are two possible catches. One is that the Japanese internal political situation and the end of the Diet—Parliament—session at the end of March will not give the premier what he wants and let him get away. The other is that the visit must be worked in between the return of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles from the Inter-American Conference at Caracas and his departure for the Far Eastern Peace Conference at Geneva.

Reports to Washington indicate that the Japanese leader has even selected some of the gifts he will bring to President Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur. So the prospect for the visit is considered bright, and a good omen for American interests. From Washington, Premier Yoshida will go to Europe, then on around the world, possibly visiting Prime Minister Nehru in India. On his return to Japan, it is expected Premier Yoshida will retire.

What brings the Japanese premier to Washington is the prospect of negotiating for better trade relations and assurances of support for limited Japanese rearmament under the U. S. Mutual Security program.

The mere fact that the Japanese Premier feels it is politically safe for him to leave his own country and come to the United States on these missions is considered significant.

Six months to a year ago there was a wave of anti-Americanism manifest in Japan. It was not considered so much hatred of the United States as it was that the Japanese people were fed up with American domination of their affairs.

Feelings Are Reversed

Two actions by the U. S. government are believed to have reversed this feeling of anti-Americanism. First, the return to Japanese sovereignty of the northern Ryukyu Islands. It contrasted sharply to the Russian seizure of Japanese islands north of Hokkaido.

The second step was the return to Japan of jurisdiction over U. S. troops in cases involving violation of Japanese law. This proved there was to be no return to extraterritoriality. Both actions promoted Japanese-American friendship.

With the blessing and encouragement of the U. S., the Japanese government is going ahead on limited rearmament. There are bills before the Diet now to permit rearmament for self-defense, to repel aggression.

The Japanese now have embryo defense forces of 110,000 men. Fifty thousand more will be recruited next year. The ceiling for 1956 is to be 150,000.

This isn't much for a country of 97 million people. By contrast, South Korea, with 20 million people, supports an army of over 100,000. But for Japan it is a start. And to support this army this year's Japanese budget calls for expenditure of $170 million.

Need Help To Rerun

However, for further rearmament, Japan will need considerable assistance. That is due to inflation, last year's rice crop failure and a $1 billion unfavorable trade balance. This becomes a subject for negotiation. The standard U. S. mutual security agreement requires tight security control over subversion. This Japan does not have though laws to correct the situation are also before the Diet.

The Communist Party is now legal in Japan. It is supposed to have about 50,000 members, with as many more fellow travelers. This is a considerable reduction from the three million votes the party polled in 1949. The strongholds are the labor movement and particularly the teachers' union. But a new anti-Communist trade union federation is said to be combatting that. And new laws to centralize police administration will make it easier to control Communism.

Premier Yoshida is expected, however, to ask for more American support in the field of foreign trade, rather than for internal security. The threat of a revived Japanese trade with Red China is now believed to have been exaggerated. Before the war trade with China, Manchuria and Formosa was 30 per cent of Japan's total. For China alone it was 10 per cent. That may be today's potential.

What Japan wants particularly is more trade with America, to earn more U. S. dollars and to buy more U. S. goods. Assistant Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson made a strong plea for this recently in his speech before the Cleveland Foreign Policy Assn. He declared that U. S. customs procedures must be simplified and tariffs lowered to keep Japan from collapse and to keep Japan on the side of the United States.

Homesick For Hunting

Though he has been on the job in Lisbon less than six months, U. S. Ambassador to Portugal Robert Guggenheim just had to come home for a month's vacation. He wanted to be at his South Carolina plantation for the shooting season—a sport he hasn't missed in many years.

State Department says the trip was not made at government expense. Travelling to the United States on the Italian liner Andrea Doria, Ambassador Guggenheim did spend three days in Washington for official consultation, during which he would be entitled to government subsistence expenses. The Ambassador's salary, of course continues during the shooting season. There are no pressing problems in U. S.-Portuguese relations.

They get all tied up in knots, shuffling papers around and installing complicated systems that only make homework more difficult. #### Federal Housekeepers

A woman career officer in the department of State comes forward with the suggestion that what this much-criticized agency really needs is some more women around the place to do some first-class housekeeping. For her own protection, this woman can't be named. It's enough to say that she has been in and out of government jobs for 20 years and knows her way around.

THE STORY: Jim Dunn, a private detective, was in Colorado City to attend the wedding of his friend Lieutenant Edward Richards when Chief Police Officer Dunn was murdered. The chief's daughter was with Jim at the reception when she received the news that her father had been stabbed.

NANCY DROVER sat huddled in the corner of the back seat of the police sedan, while officer Early drove slowly through the tree-lined pleasant residential section of Colorado City. Jim Dunn held one of her hands in a grip of companionship at a time when there was only loneliness. The girl's body shook spasmodically, but she was dry-eyed, stunned.

"The wedding," Nancy said aloud. "Mark?"

"We haven't tried to get in touch with him," Early said. "Not yet. He was careful not to say where they were going. But don't worry. Hell be here to take charge."

"No," Nancy said firmly. "They—you—mustn't do that to him—and to Joan. Not right away. Drive us to headquarters. Tim."

Early looked at Jim for guidance, and Dunn nodded. There would be activity and motion to distract Nancy's mind. He would be in a position where he might be of some help in the investigation. And Dr. Pardon would be there eventually, to minister to her if occasion arose. Jim knew Nancy had the strength of character, of will, to cope with even this situation. What hurt him most was the necessity for draining away her strength and energy in such a cause, the necessary blunting and hardening of certain responses and viewpoints.

"It might be best for a while," Jim said.

Early drove swiftly along the shadowed tunnel formed by the green arch of leaves and branches.

Nancy Drover broke the silence only once, spoke as much to herself as to the others. "Dad did have something on his mind. I'm sure now. I know."

THE outer offices looked as if a tornado had gone through, and swept with it all the personnel except a uniformed man at the switchboard. Mayor Edward Stone came out of an inside office, looked momentarily more cheerful at sight of someone else, then returned to his lost expression of bewilderment.

"Miss Drover, I can't tell you—I'm sorry—I know words don't mean anything."

Nancy nodded.

Stone turned to the two men. "She shouldn't be here."

"I asked," Nancy said. "I want to know."

Mayor Edward Stone was a tall man, with tufts of gray hair over each of his protruding ears, bald otherwise. His large horn-rimmed glasses perched on his brow of a nose, and gave him a bird-of-prey expression. He was tall and thin, and his body stooped as if it had learned early in life the necessity of dodging overhead objects designed for people of lesser stature. His brown eyes once seen without the distorting barrier of lenses, erased entirely the vulpine idea. They were deep set, understanding.

But that wasn't all that happened. Yesterday Son Flanders (R-V) tore into McCarthy on the Senate floor. He charged McCarthy is doing his best to shatter the Republican party and by his actions is diverting the nation from "far more dangerous problems" than internal communism.

Meanwhile, Vice President Nixon was picked—reportedly by Eisenhower—to make the Republican party's reply to Stevenson Saturday night.

Spring is near but for McCarthy this week brought the chilliest weather he has had to endure since the Eisenhower administration took over in January 1953.

GM Reports Two Billion Sales In '53

NEW YORK P—Ten billion dollars in sales, more than 134 billion in taxes, $38 million in profits—that's the record of General Motors Corp. for 1953.

The sales of $10,027,985,482 were the highest in history for any private corporation and eclipsed by a wide margin the $7,549,154,419 in 1952, previous record for GM or any other firm.

Net income of $598,119,478 was only the third highest for the giant auto manufacturer but GM kept its position as biggest money-maker in American industry, topping 1952 earnings of $53 million by Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) and $41 million for the Bell Telephone System.

Direct taxes of $1,237,000,000 plus $661,000,000 collected by GM in sales and excise taxes came to $1,898,000,000 equivalent to $21.77 a share of common stock, compared with net income of $6.71 a share.

"Earnings continued to be adversely affected by excess profits taxes and in 1953 earnings also were affected by higher material costs, particularly higher premium steel costs, higher labor costs including large amounts for overtime premiums, and increased costs for special tools," said the annual report.

The report to GM's 495,000 stockholders, by Harlow H. Curtice, president, and Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of the board, reported the company sold 3,760,000 passenger cars and trucks in 1953 against 2,629,000 in 1952. Of the 1953 total, 3,276,000 were produced in the company's United States plants and 484,000 in Canadian and overseas plants. Of 1953 U.S. and factory sales for passenger cars, GM had 45.7 per cent.

The net income of $6.71 a share, after the annual requirement of $12,928,512 in preferred dividends, amounted to 6 per cent on net sales. This compared with 7.4 per cent on sales in 1952 when net income was $558,721,179 or $6.25 a share. It's only years when net income exceeded that for 1953 were 1949 when it was $656,434,234 and 1950 when it was $834,044,039, which still stands as an all-time record for any private enterprise.

Assets at the end of the year were $4,405,475,042 compared with $4,001,294,708 at the end of 1952.

Sixty per cent of the company's billion-dollar expansion program will be completed in 1954 and the remainder by the fall of 1955, said the report.

Chemistry Student Critically Hurt In School Blast

ST. LOUIS P—A 16-year-old schoolboy, described by school authorities as a "brilliant chemistry student" was critically injured in an explosion in a suburban University City junior high school science room after classes were dismissed yesterday.

The youth, Robert Schneider, suffered a badly mangled left hand and severe cuts on his right hand when chemicals in a vial he was carrying exploded.

An instructor, Jennings H. Biebel, said Schneider first told him the chemicals in the vial were harmless, but later admitted he held an explosive mixture (red phosphorus and potassium chlorate). Biebel said he started to warn the boy when the explosion occurred.

The blast was at Hanley Junior High School. Schneider, who also suffered cuts on the body and face, was once a student at the school. He now is a junior at University City Senior High School.

Police said Schneider obtained the chemicals at the senior high school laboratory in an after-class visit. There was no explanation of the boy's visit to the junior high school.

The 68 - member Williamsport City Choir, accompanied by Mayor Clifford L. Harman of nearby Williamsport, put on a Rebecca Gross Sing Night and realized an estimated $12,300 to pay for debts incurred by the Lock Haven City Recreation Board.

Chairman of the board is Miss Gross, editor of the Lock Haven Express. She is now at a clinic in New Jersey for the fitting of artificial limbs after losing her legs in a New Year's Eve accident.

Jury Convicts Two Men In 5 Minutes Tuesday

ST. LOUIS P—It took a Federal Court jury just five minutes to convict two men on armed robbery charges yesterday in the $19,600 holdup of the bank of Bourbon, Mo., last Nov. 19.

Federal Court attaches said it was the swiftest verdict return within memory.

The defendants in the two-day trial were John L. Heiman, 28, of Centralia, Ill., and Robert P. Dickey, 22-year-old St. Louisan.

They will be sentenced Friday with a third member of the holdup gang, Louis W. Johnson, 27, of St. Louis, who pleaded guilty to the charge. Each faces a maximum penalty of 25 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The three men were arrested in a Centralia apartment the day after the holdup. Most of the loot was recovered.

Bourbon is about 60 miles south-west of St. Louis.

Income Tax Time's A-Comin'

87 Days to Figure Taxes...213 to Work

As the proprietor of a hardware store, George Schulhoff, of Cincinnati, Ohio, figures he spends 87 of his 300 working days keeping records and filling out tax forms. He has seven levies to worry about: income tax, unemployment compensation, intangible tax, state sales tax, social security, state workmen's compensation and federal withholding. Schulhoff spends 96 hours a year on taking inventory. He figures 15 seconds per transaction for receipts. He spends four days winding up each month on the books, 48 hours more at the end of the year. Then there's a daily check of the cash register and several days a year answering questions of the tax people.

His latest headache: Cincinnati is starting a city earnings tax April 1.

Michigan House Okays Bill to Correct Beer, Wine Advertising

LANSING, Mich. P—The House of Michigan Legislature has passed by 56-32 a bill to ban the showing of people drinking beer and wine in television advertising. It now goes to the Senate.

Rep. John J. McCune of East Lansing, a Republican who sponsored the bill, said the purpose was to keep children and young people from getting the idea that drinking was socially acceptable.

He said it was not intended to end beer and wine advertising on television.

Draft Board Orders Boy, 8, to Appear

MALDEN, Mass. P—James Francis Coffey Jr. was to appear before a draft board today to explain why he didn't register for the draft after he was "discharged from the service" last month.

The board's letter reminded him that the law requires a discharged serviceman to register with the draft board within 30 days of his discharge.

Jimmy is a little confused about the whole thing. He's only 8.

His father, a postman, had a little advice. "Ask about your state bonus check," he suggested. "After all, you're a veteran now."

UN Charges Reds Denied Civilians Right to Return

House Bill Will Give Missouri $22,204,000 Federal Aid for Roads

WASHINGTON P—The House has approved a bill that would allow $22,204,000 to Missouri in new federal highway aid funds, compared with $15,981,742 in current spending.

At the same meeting of the Joint Military Armistice Commission the Communists similarly charged the U. N. command with denying the right to register and return South under the armistice agreement.

Both would permit greater federal spending than the total of $75 million dollars a year authorized in the House bill for the two years starting July 1, 1953. The House sum is $225 millions above the current spending.

Rear Adm. A. E. Jarrell told the Communists: "It is inconceivable that none of the 80,000 South Koreans taken North during the active hostilities has been permitted to return South."

Jarrell also charged that the Reds had made no effort to send 2,831 displaced civilians the U. N. Command had listed by name to be informed of their right to return south.

Earlier, South Korea accused the Communists of kidnaping more than 80,000 of its citizens.

The tire sensation in 1953! Now Goodyear announces still greater improvements!

New 1954 All-Nylon Cord Super-Cushion

All-Nylon Cord! Up to 80% stronger than standard tires!

And now! 3 great 1954 Extras!

✓ Even more mileage than last year!

✓ Much greater skid protection than in 1953!

✓ Quieter ride—less squeal on turns!

This test car at 55 mph! Not a cord broken! This is just one of the punishing tests this All-Nylon Cord Super-Cushion has taken! In fact, impact blowouts are almost unheard of with All-Nylon Cord Super-Cushions.

Up to 12% more mileage! This mileage boost comes right on the heels of a 21% increase in 1953. Total... almost 1/2 more safe mileage than most motorists ever experienced before! That's real money in your pocket in reduced driving costs.

There's a big difference in Nylon cord! Only Goodyear has Triple-Tempered 3-T Nylon!

Nylon is the best tire cord—if the stretch can be controlled. Nylon is naturally stronger, pound for pound, than steel; it makes a lighter weight, cooler running, longer wearing tire. But, unless properly pre-conditioned, Nylon stretches under tension.

To control the stretch in Nylon cord, Goodyear has developed an exclusive process of chemically treating the cord and then putting it through a triple-temping process involving Tension, Temperature and Time. The result—Goodyear's Triple-Tempered 3-T Nylon Cord—the Nylon cord that is fully controlled at its point of maximum strength and resiliency.

Be sure your Nylon cord tires are made with Triple-Tempered 3-T Nylon Cord—and that means Goodyear.

Rookie Grabs The Limelight In Tribe Camp

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Rudy Regalado, an infielder by trade and a terrific hitter by the looks of things, is the player they're all talking about in the camp of the Cleveland Indians today.

A student at the University of Southern California, Regalado, 23, is making sure Manager Al Lopez knows he's around.

Yesterday, he connected for two home runs and a pair of singles as the Indians walloped the Chicago Cubs 17-6.

The youngster's bat has been sizzling all spring. In 22 times at bat, he's collected 13 hits for a .591 average. He's hit five homers and batted in 11 runs.

Yet he's had only a year of professional experience. He played most of last season with Reading of the Eastern League, where he batted .325. Then he was sent to Indianapolis.

Actually, he is still on the Indianapolis roster, but if he keeps up his present pace he's a cinch to stick with Cleveland. He has played second and third base.

Meanwhile, the rest of the Cleveland players haven't been twiddling their thumbs. In fact, the Tribe had compiled 64 runs in the four games they've played—or 16 runs per game.

Al Rosen, the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1953, chipped in with a bases-loaded homer in yesterday's triumph. Outfielder Dave Philey and Wally Westlake the first baseman Billy Glynn also hit drives out of the park as did Bruce Edwards of the Cubs.

The Indians play the Baltimore Orioles today and that one could develop into a real humdinger.

The Orioles still are unbeaten this spring. They came from behind with a pair of ninth-inning runs yesterday to down the New York Giants 10-9.

Sam Mele and Jim Friday hit home runs for Baltimore while Hank Thompson hit two and Ray Katt one for the Giants.

At St. Petersburg, Fla., Solly Heimann, seeking to hold on to his regular shortstop job, drove out four hits, the last a bases-clearing triple in the 11th inning, to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 10-9 edge over the Chicago White Sox.

Bonus baby Billy Consolo doubled home the tying and winning runs as the Boston Red Sox scored four times in the ninth inning to defeat the New York Yankees 6-5.

The Detroit Tigers picked up their first triumph of the year, edging the Philadelphia Phillies 6-5 at Lakeland, Fla.

Cardinals Find Fellow Who Can Sub for Slaughter

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 10—Enos (Country) Slaughter is not yet ready to retire, but when he does, the St. Louis Cardinals have a hunch they've found a worthy successor.

The man who is being groomed to step into the shoes of the 38-year-old Slaughter is Wally Moon, a young outfielder who technically is still a member of the International League Rochester Redwings but who is the brightest new face in the Cardinal camp.

Unless he goes into a complete eclipse, Moon is a cinch to become a full-fledged member of the Redbirds within a matter of days. In the short time he's been here, the 23-year-old from Truman, Ark., has caught the eye of Manager Eddie Stanky with his fine all-around performance.

"The boy hasn't smiled since he's been in camp," observed Stanky the other day. "He's all business. If he continues to look as good as he has been, I don't see how we can keep him off the club."

Moon has the advantage over most of the other rookies in the Cardinal camp. He put in an entire winter playing in the Venezuelan League with the pennant-winning Pastore team of Maracaibo, Venezuela.

The rangy flycatcher was adjudged the most valuable player in that circuit, leading all hitters with 61 runs scored, 60 runs batted in and seven triples in 64 games. He was second in homers in 12 and in batting with .322. His run batted in and runs scored totals are all-time league records.

Moon demonstrated that power in the cardinals' first game of the grapefruit season. His first hit was a 38-foot home run to right field against New York Yankee pitching. Later he slammed a 400-foot double off the center field wall.

Gil Turner May Go Back As Welterweight

PHILADELPHIA, April 10—Philadelphia's Gil Turner, a welterweight turned middleweight, may reverse the procedure if he's upset by Oakland's Bob Jones tonight in their nationally televised (CBS) 10 round scrap at the arena.

Turner's manager, George Katz, says he's seriously thinking of dropping his Tiger back into the 147 pound ranks even if he wins.

Katz, of course, is thinking along the lines of welter champ Kid Gavilan winning the middleweight title from Bob Olson in their coming fight. He reasons that Gavilan will then vacate the welterweight field and that Turner can handle the best of the 147 pound challengers.

It's doubtful if Turner could make the weight for a welter title scrap and still retain his fighting edge. The flurry punching Negro has come in as high as 157 pounds in recent fights and seems to be growing all the time. At any rate, the result of tonight's go against the aggressive Jones should help make up Katz's mind.

Baseball Stars Keep In Shape So Spring Training Is Breeze

STEVE O'NEILL of the Phillips had the unique distinction of managing the three pitchers widely regarded as the greatest over the past dozen or so years—Bobby Feller at Cleveland, Hal Newhouse at Detroit and now Robin Roberts.

"All three were entirely different," he says. "All Feller wanted to do was rear back and throw. He never liked to try a change of pace—he had no confidence in it. Newhouse was a beautiful, smooth workman who gave a batter a little of everything. Roberts is more like Newhouse than Feller, but he's easier to handle than either of them. When he's right you don't have to worry about anything. You just hand him the ball and sit back and you know he'll likely pitch you a complete game."

The operation involved insertion of a six-inch stainless steel nail to join the broken pieces of bone. A triangular fragment also was stitched into place.

Williams suffered the injury in a fall while chasing a line drive only 10 minutes after starting his first workout of the season March 1 at the team's Sarasota, Fla., training camp.

Dr. Russell F. Sullivan, who wired the $100,000-a-year slagger's collarbone in Sancta Maria hospital, said Williams would be released from the hospital late this week or early next week.

GI Convicts Making Good At 2nd Chance

KAUFBEUREN, Germany (AP) — Hundreds of young American soldier convicts are making good at a "second chance." U. S. army camp here in southwest Germany near the Austrian border.

Convicted in courts - martial throughout Europe for lesser offenses, they are sent here for rehabilitation and retraining instead of to prison or bounced out of uniform in disgrace.

The Army says 8 of 10 soldiers sent here and returned to normal military duty. Their average age is 21.

Kaufbeuren's prisoners have been convicted of such offenses as absence without leave, misappropriation of Army vehicles, disrespect for superiors, insubordination or drunkenness.

They have been sentenced to confinement of up to six months. Some have been meted out bad conduct or dishonorable discharges, but these are suspended when they come here.

The soldier convicts live in the same type of quarters and eat the same foods as other U. S. soldiers in Europe. The Kaufbeuren center looks much like any other military post in the American zone of Germany.

But the Army's provost marshal in Europe, Brig. Gen. J. P. Holland of Chicago, Ill., says there's "no pampering or silver spoon or kid glove handling of the trainees."

"It's a tough retraining program," he declared.

Then he added—perhaps with a memory of the brutal Army stockade in the novel and film "From Here to Eternity": "There's nothing in this retarding program remotely resembling some of the widespread misconceptions of life in an Army confinement facility. The men are sent to the rehabilitation center as punishment for some breach of law, but they're not—and I emphasize this—sent there for punishment."

Estimate 27,000 Americans Will Lose Sight In '54

ST. LOUIS (AP) — It may happen through disease, accident or simple neglect, but an estimated 27,000 Americans will lose their sight this year.

The estimate is made by Dr. Franklin M. Foote, executive director of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

In a press conference preceding the opening of the society's three day conference here today, Dr. Foote said that at present rates 750,000 Americans who now have good vision will become blind before they die, he said.

On a more optimistic note, Dr. Foote said that while more research into the causes of blinding diseases is urgently needed, most cases of possible blindness can be prevented if sight-saving knowledge now available is generally applied.

Of the 27,000 persons who probably will lose their sight in 1954, Dr. Foote said "some will become victims of one of the blinding eye diseases; some will suffer accidents and a good many, in one way or another, will become blind simply through neglect."

One of the most common eye diseases which can lead to blindness is glaucoma, Dr. Foote said. Nearly 200,000 men and women over 40 have the disease in Missouri and its eight neighboring states alone, he reported, and most of them don't know it.

Rejected Boy Friend Kills Teen-Age Rival, Wounds Girl's Mother

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (AP) — Police said a rejected boy friend shot and killed his rival for the affections of a pretty teen-ager tonight, wounded her mother and then gave himself up.

The shooting occurred at the suburban home of dark-haired, 17-year-old Colette LeFebvre. Her 18-year-old boy friend, Gilles Bourassa, was killed. Her mother, Mrs. Benoit LeFebvre, was shot in the stomach, but hospital authorities said her condition was not serious.

Colette told police Bourassa had been visiting her and was shot as he answered a knock at the door.

Fifteen minutes later, police said, Gerard Abel, 18, walked into the police station and gave himself up.

Scouts Celebrate Birthday

On March 7 some 2,000,000 Girl Scouts throughout the United States started a week's celebration commemorating their 42nd birthday. It's a time for fun, but also will be a good citizenship day and a day devoted to safety and health. Climax of the celebration will be the official party on March 12. Since this is also arts-and-crafts day, the Scouts will decorate for their parties with exhibits of their own paintings, ceramics and other art work.

Officials Open Dam, Maroon 2 Fishermen

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Officials at Arrowrock Dam opened a floodgate yesterday to release the excess water from recent heavy rains—but they forgot to warn three startled fishermen a few miles down the Boise River.

Walter Collins, Roy Cook and Jess Everson of Boise found themselves suddenly marooned with their angling on an island in the middle of the stream. They had driven there only a few hours earlier.

It took two Ada County sheriff's officers, a crew of workmen and a tractor operator to rescue the auto and the fishermen.

Chemists Have Biggest Year During 1953

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The fast growing chemical industry may have to pause this year to digest some of the great bites it has taken since the war.

But it's been a rich and tasty meal—sales up 10 per cent last year, earnings up eight per cent, plant expansion up 1½ billion dollars, spending on research up 10 per cent.

Recent months haven't been that good. Du Pont set a record for sales for the entire year, but the final three months of 1952 fell behind the similar 1952 quarter.

Allied Chemical & Dye also reports demand for its products fell off at the end of 1953, reflecting the general business turndown.

As Du Pont's president, Crawford H. Greenewalt, explains: "DuPont, in common with the chemical industry, is primarily a supplier to other manufacturers." But while the demand is catching up, DuPont's "research work to improve the quality and extend the uses of existing products is being undertaken continuously."

Leaders of the industry insist that, thanks to research's turning up new consumer products, the long-range trend is still upwards, and that job opportunities for chemists and chemical engineers this year will "remain at a rather high level."

Other industry leaders say its huge growth since the war has built its capacity to produce most of the basic chemicals to a level that probably will exceed demand for the next several years, barring any further national emergency. They predict that capital expenditures will begin to taper off by the end of this year, and the period of digestion will be under way.

The first 33 chemical companies to report on 1953 earnings show only three that didn't do better than the year before—and their down-slip wasn't large. Combined taxes the 33 had net profit after taxes of $649,851,617, an 8 per cent climb above 1952's net income for the same 33 of $601,198,600.

The Manufacturing Chemists' Assn. estimates that when all companies are heard from, the industry's net profits after taxes will top one billion dollars. It puts profits before taxes at 2½ billion, showing how deeply the excess profits tax cut into booming 1953 business.

Large Family Gives Welcome to New Arrival

FESTUS, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Ernest Thompson and her 5-day-old daughter were met by quite a reception committee when they arrived home from the hospital yesterday.

Welcoming the 43-year-old mother were her husband, a 53-year-old glass worker, and their 15 other children, the oldest of whom is 29.

Thompson, who said he was as nervous over the birth of No. 16 as he was at the birth of the first, shook his head when a newsman asked for the names and ages of the other children and confessed:

"Why, I couldn't call off their names to save my life."

Look over all your electric cords. Are there any that are frayed? Then repair at once! A frayed cord is not safe.

Postmaster Delivers Mail to Old Customer

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Acting Postmaster George McMillin says "anyone who lives to be 100 is entitled to have the postmaster deliver the mail on her birthday."

He made this statement while delivering the mail to Mrs. Eva Grace Emery yesterday. Among the letters was one from President Eisenhower congratulating her on reaching her 100th birthday.

Mrs. Emery, born in Milport, N. Y., has been a widow for 25 years.

She Didn't "Succeed"

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ronald Frampton won the Woodlawn Elementary School spelling bee when his last competitor, Joyce Sauter, muffed a vital word.

The word—"succeeded."

So, he wrote the bureau again, suggesting the strong possibility of error. The bureau informed him, he said yesterday, that its records are accurate and an error is out of the question.

Record Bureau Stands By Weird Age Report

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Adolphus A. Washauer, 74, applied recently for an old age pension and was asked to submit proof of his age. He wrote the Census Bureau, which informed him he was born in Eugene, Ore., Feb. 11, 1883. That was four years before his father was born, Washauer says.

So, he wrote the bureau again, suggesting the strong possibility of error. The bureau informed him, he said yesterday, that its records are accurate and an error is out of the question.

Pastor Says Hollywood Has Spiritual 'Zip'

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — A pastor who preached there for 12 years scoffed at reports of Hollywood's sinfulness.

"Hollywood," said the Rev. Louis H. Evans, a Presbyterian minister, "has more spiritual zip than any place I know."

Evans was a speaker at Oklahoma A&M's three-day observance of Religious Emphasis Week.

Rhee Demands No 'Sellout' At Geneva

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee has indicated South Korea will attend the Geneva conference on Far East problems but insists "we must have ironclad assurances there will be no sellout of Korea."

He likewise makes no secret of his views that the April meeting "will achieve nothing."

And he voiced a "final warning" that South Korea "cannot wait for unification for endless months while idle talk drags on."

The South Korean President said his country needed further information from U. S. Secretary of State Dulles before announcing its decision on the Geneva meeting.

"As soon as information is received I think we shall be in a position to decide what to do," Rhee said.

All the major countries except South Korea have agreed to go to Geneva April 26.

Rhee gave his views in answer to written questions from the Associated Press.

"We must have ironclad assurances there will be no sellout of Korea and that objectives of unification and expulsion of the Communists will be pursued with diligence and without compromise," he said.

"We do not like the idea of a conference and we are positive that it will achieve nothing. But if our interests are fully protected we probably shall make this one last effort in an attempt to persuade our allies that the only way to bring peace to Korea is to finish the job that was begun when the aggressors struck in June of 1950."

Rhee said South Korea wants:

1. Russia "clearly identified" as being on the side of the Communist belligerents and not neutral.

2. The conference to be two-sided, with Communists on one side and the Allies on the other, instead of a round-table discussion.

3. Decisions to be by unanimous agreement instead of majority vote—thus giving South Korea veto power over any decision affecting its future.

4. Korean issues "be decided fully and completely" before going on to discussing Indochina and other Far East problems.

5. No agreement that does not call for withdrawal of the Chinese from Korea and unification of Korea.

6. Red China "identified as a hostile power attending the peace negotiations and not as a recognized state attending the general conference."

Urge Marching North If Chinese Leave

HONG KONG (AP)—South Korean Brig. Gen. Choi Duk Shin said here today if a Nationalist Chinese invasion of the China mainland should force withdrawal of Red Chinese troops from North Korea, "South Korea would take full advantage of this and march north."

Choi arrived here with two other members of a South Korean mission now touring Southeast Asian countries in an effort to promote an anti-Communist alliance.

British Claim They Killed 125 Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—The British claimed today their ground and air forces have killed at least 125 terrorists of the anti-White Mau Mau in strikes during the past 10 days.

The colonial government said 53 Mau Mau also had been captured during the period. The security forces lost five men, including one European.

Hal Boyle's Column...

Articulate Banjo Player Has Language All His Own

By EDDY GILMORE
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most articulate men in America is a banjo player who never got beyond the eighth grade.

His name is Eddie Condon (born Albert Edward Condon), a high priest of pure jazz, who has a consistency akin to the late Babe Ruth's.

The Babe never threw to a wrong chord.

After an honest start on the banjo, Condon has come down to the guitar and he's one of the best in the business. He's a man not given to bragging. The only self-praise I ever heard him indulge in was the remark, "I've never played a solo in my life."

It's Eddie's articulation with words, not music, that fascinates so many of his listeners and friends. Consider his comment on an eminent French music critic who denounced American jazz.

"Who does that frog think he is," asked Eddie, "to come over here and try to tell us how to play? We don't go over there and tell them how to jump on a grape."

That is typical of Eddie.

His name for friends and people are just as amusing.

I was talking to him the other night about a mutual friend who, although he'd never been south of South Chicago, suddenly developed a very strong case of south mouth.

"He's really got a southern accent," I said.

"He certainly has," commented Eddie, "He talks like Amos and Andy."

Condon has no opinion on the subject of bop. He just never thinks of it. If he did I'm sure he would loathe it, but someone played a bop record for him the other day and insisted that he come to this place?"

"How many?"

"One for Phyllis" (his clever, pretty wife), "one for me, one for the maid and four for you," he said, "you lose things."

Italy's Oldest Dog Is Killed by Car

GROSSETO, Italy (AP)—Italy's oldest dog, 21-year-old Birillo (it's Italian for Skittles) died yesterday of "Perhaps," observed the man who was interviewing him, "but how do you rate the record?"

"How do you rate a hurricane?" asked Eddie.

Condon's observations on the human scene and on human beings are not confined to musicians. He introduced me to a college professor one night and later told me the prof once played football for Notre Dame.

"He looks a little old and frail for that," I said.

"Oh, he was playing before they put air in the football," he said. The Condon household in New York's Greenwich Village is a seven-room contradiction.

Many License Renewals Due During March

WILBERT ASKEW, Sedalia deputy motor vehicle commissioner, announced today the "due" dates of various Missouri automobile license plates. Renewal tags can be obtained at the local Missouri State Vehicle License Department, at the Askew Motor Co., 121 East Fourth.

All passenger licenses carrying numbers between 150-001 and 225-000 are due to be renewed during the month of March. In addition, all tags starting with the letter "C" are also to be renewed during this month.

Those who have received notification from Jefferson City that their license is due in March—take along this notification as well as the state personal tax receipts.

This applies regardless of whether the person is a resident of Pettis County or any other county.

For those who haven't received this notice from Jefferson City, the original title, or receipt of last year's purchase of tags, as well as the personal property tax, receipt are needed.

In applying for renewal, be sure to have the present license number.

A state penalty of $2 per license is charged for all licenses not renewed in the month they are due.

British Official Warns of More Trouble In the Sudan Area

LONDON (AP)—A high British official accused Egypt today of "provocative acts" in the Sudan and warned that further trouble may break out in the east African country.

Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd, arriving from Khartoum where he went to attend the opening of the Sudanese Parliament, since postponed, told newsmen "the situation is still anxious but we hope that democratic institutions will be proved to be workable."

Lloyd appealed for "tolerance and consideration of both parties for the other party's point of view—not provocative acts."

"Egypt's interference," he said, "was a provocative act to a large section of opinion."

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden last week blamed Egypt—without naming her directly—for the riots in Khartoum nine days ago in which 34 persons were killed and more than 100 wounded.

The rioting was touched off by the arrival in the Sudanese capital of Egyptian President Mohamed Nagaib.

Egypt has blamed Britain for the trouble.

Japan Cabinet Okays Two Defense Bills

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's Cabinet today approved two bills to bolster the nation's defense. Both must pass the Diet.

Under the proposed laws, Japan defense personnel would be increased to $64,538 in the next fiscal year from 120,000. The president would assume a more military character.

The bills would revise Japanese law to fit with the mutual defense agreement signed yesterday with the United States although there is nothing in the measures themselves which tie them directly to embryo land, naval and air the defense agreement.
